

XXI World Congress on Safety and Health Singapur 2017

The XXI World Congress on Safety and Health under the motto Global Vision for Prevention shall be held in Singapore in the period between September 3rd and 6th 2017.

The World Congress 2017 programme includes an opening and closing ceremony, keynote speeches, technical sessions, special events and symposia. Poster presentations, industrial visits, an accompanying trade fair and an International Media Festival for Prevention shall also be held concurrently as a part of the Congress.

The International Media Festival for Prevention is divided into two categories:

- I A challenge for professionals, engineers, faculties, students, organizations around the world working in the field of occupational health and safety,
- II Safe Youth Work

As for the first category, the Macedonian Occupational Safety and Health Association (CIS / ILO Collaboration Center and a Focal Point of EU-OSHA), driven by the desire to raise the public awareness with a particular focus on workers and employers and the basic human right - the right to safe and healthy workplace, delivered a video clip to the festival, a copyright work by Milan Petkovski, the President of the Macedonian Occupational Safety and Health Association, made by Backstage production and financially supported by the European Union.

As for the second category (from 15 to 24 years of age) students and youngsters from Macedonia produced drawings, posters, texts and two videos.

The winners shall be officially selected at the International Prevention Festival, which will be held within the World Congress of Occupational Safety and Health, and the award will be conferred at a ceremony organized in Singapore on September 4th 2017.

Having in mind that there is no greater achievement than representing your own country at a Festival which offers a preview of films and multimedia products for occupational safety and health around the world, and an opportunity for participants to present projects to audience of International professionals in the respective field, we hereby cordially invite you to take a part in the Congress in Singapore 2017.
